

Bedford Dental Centre Privacy Commitment to our Patients

Privacy of our patient's personal information is important to us. We will collect, use and disclose your personal information responsibly.

Personal information necessary to provide professional dental care collected by you, on medical history forms, or by communication by our staff in our dental office will be used and disclosed properly.

We will protect your personal information from loss, theft, and unauthorized access. We have measures in place to insure the security of your information. Your personal information shall only be disclosed to other dentists, specialists, and personal physicians. You may designate to whom we may disclose your personal information or restrict the content of your disclosure.

We will keep your personal information as long as necessary to provide dental care for you and related administration. It will be destroyed in a secure manner when no longer needed for dental care.

We will provide you with your personal information entrusted to us at any time.

If you wish to make a formal complaint regarding our privacy policy, please do so in writing to our privacy officer, PEGGY TOWRISS. We will be pleased to help you.
